Report of the Supervisory Board of Prochem S.A. on remuneration in 2019-2020

3. Compliance of the Remuneration of Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board with the Remuneration Policy, the performance criteria.

The total remuneration of Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board is in accordance with the Remuneration Policy adopted by the Company on August 25, 2020. The solutions adopted in the Policy contribute to the implementation of the business strategy, long-term interests and stability of the Company.

In accordance with the Policy adopted in the Company, the basis for determining the total amount of remuneration of Members of the Management Board and Supervisory Board in 2019 and 2020 was the assessment of the effects of the work of a given person and organizational unit in relation to the financial results of the Company or the Group. Moreover, the remuneration paid to Members of the Management Board and Supervisory Board took into account the current situation of the Company.

Dependence on financial performance relates to the performance of the Company or the Capital Group. Detailed rules for determining, calculating and paying variable remuneration are specified by the Supervisory Board in an agreement concluded with a member of the Management Board and in the resolution establishing the remuneration of a member of the Management Board for the appointment of.

The variable part of the remuneration dependent on the Company's performance was payable after the Company's General Meeting of Shareholders had approved the Company's Financial Statements for the previous year. The variable part depending on the results of the Group was payable after the approval of the financial statements of the Capital Group of Prochem S.A. on the basis of a Resolution of the Supervisory Board.

Fixed remuneration is the basic component of remuneration, which guarantees the implementation of the Company's and Group's strategy by the Members of the Management Board, while the variable remuneration is motivating and stimulates effective achievement of strategic goals.

The remuneration of the Members of the Management Board and Members of the Supervisory Board took into account the goals set out in the Remuneration Policy. When determining the amount of remuneration, the implementation of the business strategy adopted by the Company, long-term interests assumed by the Company and the Company's stability were taken into account.

When assessing the results of individual members of the Management Board, not only financial criteria were taken into account, but also the performance of tasks generating additional and unplanned revenues or savings, taking into account the risk related to the implementation of such tasks. Criteria that were taken into account when assessing individual results were also participation in activities influencing the Company's reputation, timely implementation of tasks assigned to individual Management Board Members, approach to risk and implementation of strategies in the supervised areas.
